(2) Condition 19(1) shall apply notwithstanding that the Goods concerned may have been inspected in accordance with the Contract or that the title in the Goods may have passed, in accordance with provisions specifically made in the Contract, from the Contractor to Ofcom or its agent earlier than upon delivery.

(3) Unless the Contract specifically otherwise provides, the Contractor is not responsible for the Goods after delivery save that it shall become responsible in all respects including assuming risk of damage to or loss of the Goods which under Condition 18 Ofcom rejects after delivery, and such responsibility shall take effect upon the Contractor:

Acceptance of the Goods or a consignment of Goods shall take place when Ofcom confirms acceptance of the Goods in accordance with the procedure specified in the Contract, and if none is so specified, Ofcom shall be deemed to have accepted the Goods or a consignment of Goods without prejudice to any remedies, upon the happening of any of the following:

- (c) where no period for exercising the right of rejection is specified in the Contract where Ofcom fails to exercise its right of rejection within such reasonable time since delivery of the Goods was effected as may be necessary to inspect the Goods in accordance with Condition 18 or in accordance with the Contract.

21. Marking of Goods

If so required by the Contract, the Contractor shall at its own expense mark or permit the representative of Ofcom to mark all approved

Ofcom's right to terminate the Contract under Condition 23(1)(d) will exist until the end of a period of six calendar months starting from receipt of the notice provided by the Contractor pursuant to Condition 23(1), or such other period as is agreed by the parties.

24. Termination for Breach of Contract

(1) If either party commits a material breach of the Contract which is either not capable of remedy, or, if it is capable of remedy, it fails to remedy such breach within 28 days of being notified by the other party in writing to do so, that other party shall be entitled to terminate the Contract with immediate effect by notice in writing to the party that committed the material breach and without prejudice to any other rights or remedies of either party in respect of the breach concerned or any other breach of the Contract.

If considered appropriate, the parties may at any stage seek assistance from the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution to provide guidance on a suitable procedure;

(c) unless otherwise agreed, all negotiations connected with the dispute and any settlement agreement relating to it shall be conducted in confidence and without prejudice to the rights of the parties in any future proceedings;

(d) if the parties reach agreement on the resolution of the dispute within 60 days of the Mediator being appointed, or such longer period as may be agreed between the parties, the agreement shall be reduced to writing and shall be binding on the parties once it is signed by both Ofcom and the Contractor;

- (e) failing agreement within 60 days of the Mediator being appointed, or such longer period as may be agreed between the parties, either of the parties may invite the Mediator to provide a non-binding but informative opinion in writing. Such an opinion shall be provided on a without prejudice basis and shall not be used in evidence in any proceedings relating to the Contract without the prior written consent of both parties.

(5) If the parties do not agree to refer the dispute to mediation within 30 days of receipt of the notice described in Condition 26(2), or if having agreed to refer the dispute to mediation the parties fail to reach agreement as to who shall mediate the dispute pursuant to Condition 26(4)(a) within 30 days of agreeing to refer the dispute to mediation or if they fail to reach agreement in the structured negotiations within 60 days of the Mediator being appointed or such longer period as may be agreed by the parties, then any dispute or difference between them may be referred to the courts.

27. Conflict of Interest

(1) The Contractor shall ensure that there is no conflict of interest as to be likely to prejudice its independence and objectivity in performing the Contract, and undertakes that upon becoming aware of any such conflict of interest during the performance of the Contract (whether the conflict existed before the award of the Contract or arises during its performance), it shall immediately notify Ofcom in writing of the same, giving particulars of its nature and the circumstances in which it exists or arises and shall furnish such further information as Ofcom may reasonably require.

(2) Where Ofcom is of the opinion that the conflict of interest notified to it under Condition 27(1) is capable of being avoided or removed, Ofcom may require the Contractor to take such steps as will, in its opinion, avoid, or as the case may be, remove the conflict and:

- (a) if the Contractor fails to comply with Ofcom requirements in this respect; or
- (b) if, in the opinion of Ofcom, compliance does not avoid or remove the conflict,

Ofcom may terminate the Contract immediately and recover from the Contractor the amount of any loss resulting from such termination.

(3) Notwithstanding Condition 27(2), where Ofcom is of the opinion that the conflict of interest which existed at the time of the award of the Contract could have been discovered with the application by the Contractor of due diligence and ought to have been disclosed as required by the tender documents pertaining to the granting of the Contract to the Contractor, Ofcom may terminate the Contract immediately for breach of a fundamental condition of the Contract and, without prejudice to any other rights, recover from the Contractor the amount of any loss resulting from such termination.

28. Special Provisions

In the case of any conflict or inconsistency between these general Conditions and any specific conditions contained within the Contract, the latter shall prevail.

29. Rights of Third Parties

It is not intended that the Contract, either expressly or by implication, confers any benefit on any person who is not a party to the Contract and accordingly the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 shall not apply.

31. Law and Jurisdiction

The Contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English Law, and shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

32. No Olympic Marketing Rights

The Contractor acknowledges that Ofcom does not confer on the Contractor under this Contract any right to use any trade names, logos or IPR of the London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games Limited ("LOCOG") or the Olympic Delivery Authority ("ODA") (including the names "London 2012", "LOCOG" and "ODA") and the Contractor shall not represent that any Goods provided have been endorsed or approved by the British Olympic Association, the British Paralympic Association, LOCOG, the ODA or any other official Olympic or Paralympic body, or that the Contractor or its Goods are in any way associated with those organisations or the London 2012 Olympic Games and Paralympic Games ("the Games"), including by publishing or issuing any statement (factual or otherwise) about the Contractor's provision of Goods to Ofcom in relation to the Games.
